DECLARATION OF HEATHER LEONARD IN SUPPORT OF THE PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR AN AWARD OF ATTORNEY'S FEES AND EXPENSES

I, Heather Leonard, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1746, hereby declare and affirm that I am over 18 and am competent to make the following Declaration:

1. My name is Heather Leonard. I am an attorney and mediator with an office in Birmingham, but I practice throughout the State of Alabama. I make this declaration based on my personal knowledge and experience.

Leonard's Qualifications and Familiarity with Employment Law

2. I graduated from the University of Alabama School of Law in 1998 and was admitted to the Alabama State Bar that same year. While in law school, I was a member of the John A. Campbell Moot Court Board and the National Moot Court Team. I was the Managing Editor for the Law and Psychology Review and served as the secretary for the Student Bar Association.

3. I practice before the United States District Court for the Northern District of Alabama, United States District Court for the Middle District of Alabama, United States District Court for the Southern District of Alabama, and the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit. I also serve as a mediator and arbitrator.

4. Since 1998, I have focused my practice of law on the area of employment and civil rights litigation. I currently represent both Plaintiffs and Defendants in employment related cases. I have tried jury trial cases in the United States District Courts in Alabama since 1998 and have argued appellate cases before the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit.

5. I served on the Board of the Alabama State Bar's Labor and Employment Section from 2017-2023. In 2023, I was the Chair for the Alabama State Bar's Labor and Employment Section. I am also the former president of the Alabama affiliate for the National Employment Lawyers Association ("NELA").

6. I have written the following articles relating to employment law:

a. The Family and Medical Leave Act - Does it Apply to Job Applicants;
Birmingham Bar Association Bulletin, Winter 2000

- b. Military Leave: and Employer's Basic Obligations; Birmingham Bar Association Bulletin, Spring 2003
- c. Proceed with Caution: Hiring of Legal Support Staff — An Analysis of Opinion of the General Counsel, Opinion No. 02-01; Birmingham Bar Association Bulletin, Fall 2002
- d. Can An Employer Be Held Liable Under The Federal Anti-Discrimination Laws For Failure To Provide Health Insurance Coverage For Assisted Reproductive Technology?; Birmingham Bar Association Bulletin, Fall 2001

7. In addition to serving as adjunct faculty at the University of Alabama at Birmingham in 2002 and 2003 (teaching trial advocacy, mediation, and mock trial), I serve on the planning committee for both the University of Alabama's School of Law's annual employment law CLE and the Cumberland School of Law Annual Labor and Employment CLE and have taught at the numerous legal seminars, including:

- National Employment Lawyers Conference on Representing Federal and Public Employees (2024)

Reasonableness of Rates

9. Through my practice and service on the board for the National Employment Lawyers Association's Alabama affiliate, I am familiar with the hourly rates of attorneys billed and paid in the State of Alabama and in the Eleventh Circuit in employment discrimination litigation and similar cases requiring comparable skill, effort, and responsibility.

10. My current hourly rate charged for mediation services is $500 an hour. My last fee award in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Alabama was in March 2022 when I received a fee award based on a rate of $500 an hour. (Trantham v Socoper, Inc.; 1:16-cv-1476-KOB (Docs. 248-249)). My last fee award in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Alabama was June 2022 when I received a fee award based on a rate of $400 an hour. (Wiggins v. The City of Montgomery, Alabama; 2:17-cv-425-KFP (Doc. 165)). In discussing my rates with other lawyers of comparable experience and skill, I have found my rates to be in the middle of what is acceptable. The prevailing hourly rates for lawyers handling plaintiff's employment case range from $375 an hour to $650 per hour depending on the skill and experience of the litigator. For attorneys with 30 or more years of experience, the rate ranges from $525 to $650 per hour depending on the skill and experience of the litigator. For attorneys with 20 or more years of experience, the rate ranges from $400 to $550 per hour depending on the skill and experience of the litigator. For attorneys with less than 15 years of experience, the rate ranges from $375 to $425 per hour depending on the skill and experience of the litigator.

11. The rates are reasonable because of the high risk of handling employment cases on the plaintiff's side. Summary judgment is granted at a very high rate in employment discrimination cases. Over the past few years, Amanda Farahany of the firm Barrett & Farahany has presented at both the Alabama State Bar's annual Labor and Employment Conference and the Cumberland School of Law's Annual Employment Law Update. In her presentations, she covered the crushing rates at which summary judgment has been granted in employment cases in the District Courts in the Eleventh Circuit. The study showed that summary judgment was granted in more than 70% of the employment discrimination cases filed. As a result of the high summary judgment rates, the number of qualified attorneys willing to take on the risk of an employment discrimination case for an employee has dramatically dropped. I observed this decline in monitoring the membership of the Alabama State Bar's Labor and Employment Section and the Alabama affiliate for the National Employment Lawyers Association. I have seen qualified and experienced attorneys flee our ranks and/or significantly reduce the number of employment cases they are taking because of the high risk of summary judgment being granted and the low chance for a reasonable settlement prior to summary judgment briefing. Fewer and fewer attorneys entering the profession are joining the practice groups and organizations for plaintiff's employment lawyers, suggesting to me that newer attorneys are not filing employment discrimination cases.

12. Representing employees in employment litigation is risky and difficult. It requires: (1) organization and efficiency in the marshaling of facts, evidence, and theories of liability so that false starts or wasted efforts were minimized; (2) a thorough comprehension of the substantive and procedural law and policy arguments; (3) case assessment which weeds out unproductive theories and claims, and which concentrates energies on the points which are most likely to prevail; and (4) experience in presenting evidence and theories to the Court. These characteristics necessitate the requested hourly for the current case.

13. The risk inherent in handling employment cases is that representation is done on a contingency basis where the lawyer frequently works for years without any compensation and face the risks that they will not be paid for the work they have done or expenses they have advanced. This is the standard form of representation in employment discrimination matters since most plaintiffs have lost employment and are unable to afford a retainer, flat-fee, or hourly fee arrangement.

a. Ms. Key is on a contingency fee agreement, so I have not been paid for any of the work that I have performed, nor have I been reimbursed for the expenses that I have paid.

b. When I agreed to work with Ms. Palmer on this case on a contingency basis, I did so knowing that that the case would involve a tremendous amount of work with no hope of compensation for years.

c. Because Ms. Palmer and I are sharing/splitting the contingency fee that we recover,<sup>1</sup> the contingency compensation will be inadequate to reimburse us for the time we have invested in the case.

d. Without an attorney's willingness to accept a plaintiff's case on a contingent basis, the plaintiff would likely not be able to obtain representation in the current case in the State of Alabama.

14. The high rate at which summary judgment is granted deters many lawyers from taking employment cases and heightens the risk of handling these types of cases. Even in strong cases, summary judgment is granted at a high rate. For this reason, most employers/defendants will not engage in meaningful settlement discussions until after the court has ruled on summary judgment (if then); the employers are “playing the odds” that at least part of the case will be resolved in their favor at summary judgment. This means that by the time a case is ready for settlement discussions, a lawyer will have invested a substantial amount of time and expenses in litigation. Unfortunately, employment litigation is quite lucrative for the defense bar, but only the most skilled and dedicated members of the plaintiffs' bar can remain in this area of practice because of the high risk and low profitability. This is not because good cases do not exist - they do. This trend is because of the high rate at which summary judgment is granted and the low value employers are willing to pay. Employers are willing to gamble on the high summary judgment rates, especially with the comforting knowledge of statutory caps in most cases limiting their exposure if the gamble does not pay off. Therefore, attorneys' fee provisions in these federal statutes are important - they are the only way employees will be able to find lawyers who can afford to take cases to vindicate their rights. The attorneys' fee awards also discourage frivolous defenses and defendants rolling the dice on delaying settlement discussions until after briefing summary judgment. It is my understanding that this case was hotly contested by defendant, with several dispositive motions and motions to set aside the judgment file, which necessitated extensive briefing.

15. The high risk of handling an employment case on a contingency basis weigh heavily in favor of a solid hourly rate so that experienced and qualified litigators will take these cases which serve an important public interest. I am a solo practitioner with limited staff. I cannot afford the staff of a large firm because there is no guarantee as to when I will receive my next payment/fee. It would be irresponsible to commit myself to a payroll without the knowledge that I would be able to regularly meet it. This means that I am doing most if not all the work on any case I have accepted, including tasks which would normally be delegated to paralegals or law clerks.

16. When I accept or take on a case, it means that I do so to the exclusion of other work so that I can ensure that I have adequate time to handle my cases.

a. Because of time dedicated in this case to depositions and trial, I had to decline offers to mediate matters. Had I been able to accept those offers, I would have earned $500/hour for my work and been paid within thirty days of the mediation.

b. Because of the additional time I had to spend out of my office travelling to Montgomery for depositions, hearings, and trials, I had to decline to meet with several potential clients because I would be out of town.

c. I do not have another attorney in my firm to whom I can delegate work (or cover matters) when I am out of the office for depositions, court, or trial. When I accept a case, I do so only after reviewing my current case load, discovery deadlines (and associated commitments, such as depositions), dispositive motion deadlines, and trial settings. If I know that agreeing to work on a case will create a conflict with existing deadlines or trial settings, I must decline representation. Therefore, when I accept a contingency fee case, I am doing so knowing not only that I will not get paid for my work for years, but also that it means I will necessarily have to turn down other cases.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>2</sup> Having qualified counsel is a necessity to make sure that there are enough “hands” to handle all the work necessary for prosecuting a case at trial. Because of the smaller recoveries in employment cases (as compared to personal injury cases), the promise of a fee award is often the

Reasonableness of Time Sought

17. I have reviewed the hourly time sought for the preparation and trial of this case against the background of the foregoing factors as explained in Norman v. Housing Authority of City of Montgomery, 836F.2d 1292, 1300-1301 (11th Cir. 1988). The time sought is reasonable.

- a. Starting in 2020, I began using Smokeball, a practice management software, with a billing program that operates on top of Microsoft products. In addition to permitting manual entry of time, Smokeball also tracks the active time the use spends in a Word document and in emails. All billing entries, whether those captured by the software or those entered manually, require the user to review and approve the entries. This ensures not only that the entries are accurate, but also that the lawyer is familiar with the time invested in the case. Attached as Exhibit 1 is an itemization of the expenses I incurred in this case. Attached as Exhibit 2 are the total billing records from Smokeball for me, my paralegal Christine Poynter, and my office manager, Jim Leonard. as well as from the billing software I used prior to 2020.

only reason a group of qualified attorneys can represent a plaintiff; the contingency fee will not come close to covering the time and expenses invested in the case. As is the case here where there is a litigation team of two solo practioners, the fee award is the only way that our firms will be able to recoup the salary costs of that team in terms of the work expended on the case. Without the fee award, it does not make business sense for us to take employment discrimination cases.

Attached as Exhibit 3 are my reduced time records after a review of my billing records to eliminate time that was redundant, unnecessary, or not reasonably related to the issues resolved at trial and/or through post-trial motions.

- b. I have tried to be efficient and practical in determining what work to invest in the case. When time permitted, I tried to delegate to Ms. Poynter (my part-time paralegal) work which she could complete that did not require my knowledge or experience as a lawyer. In reviewing my total time (Ex 2), I eliminated time that was exclusive to dismissed claims, eliminating 37.4 hours. I did not eliminate time that may have been spent on a claim related to a dismissed party if that time and facts also related to an issue that was to be resolved at trial in the case against Dynamic.
- c. I am seeking $172,142.50 for legal fees for my office calculated as follows:
  - i. 318.5 at $500/hour for Heather Leonard ($159,250)
  - ii. 102.9 hours at $125/hour for Christine Poynter ($12,862.50)
  - iii. 0.6 hours at $50 an hour for Jim Leonard ($30)
- d. The expenses I am claiming in this case are $10,763:

16. The proposed paralegal rate of $125 per hour is also reasonable, as the local market for paralegal services for a skilled trial paralegal range from $125 to $250 an hour. Ms. Poynter has decades of experience working as litigation paralegal.

17. The proposed rate of $50 an hour for Mr. Leonard is reasonable. He is the office manager for my firm but from time-to-time assists with case matters as needed. He has worked as my office manager since 2002, and through that time has gained knowledge of employment law such that he has been retained by other firms to serve as a trial consultant and help select juries.

18. I have reviewed the foregoing and declare under the penalty of perjury that the above is true and correct.
